Content :

As leaders, we have a responsibility to ensure that we can go the distance and be fruitful along the way. This course is designed to assist you to do that by developing the character and skills of an effective & authentic leader. The tools learned will challenge you toward leadership excellence; whether it's in your home, workplace or community. Each class is varied with video, live teaching and interactive group activities. The goal is to not only provide information, but over a 10 month period assist individuals to integrate these principles into their lives. Networking and developing relationships with other leaders in our community is an added advantage. As one prior student commented, "You will expand your horizons as a leader and be ruined for the ordinary!"
